CHRISTIAN AID SERVICE: Sunday May 13th, 6.00 pm, Melbourne Baptist Church,

THANK YOU OF THE WEEK: To all who helped and supported our refreshment sales at the Medieval Market. You raised £540 for parish funds. A great result, thanks to your hard work.

CHOCOLATE BINGO & PIZZA NIGHT

Something different to look forward to on June 29th. A family evening of Bingo for chocolate prizes and a pizza supper. Donations of chocolate items for the prizes would be very much appreciated.

Latest winners: 1st No. 46 Cheryl Baxter; 2nd No. 48 Val O'Connor; 3rd No. 28 Geraldine Taylor.

SAFEGUARDING: The Diocesan Safeguarding Office has asked Catherine, our parish safeguarding rep, to update the list of parishioners with a DBS disclosure. Catherine will be getting in contact to ask for details and start renewals where necessary. If you have joined the update service, finished the work you do in the parish or there is an update, please contact Catherine on cmarkley@btinternet.com.

"You have seven phone messages telling you to check your e-mail, and thirteen e-mails telling you to answer your phone."

HI, YOU'RE THROUGH TO KAREN, HOW MAY I FRUSTRATE YOU TODAY?"

POPEQUOTE: Untrue stories can spread so quickly that even authoritative denials fail to contain the damage. The tragedy of disinformation is that it discredits others, presenting them as enemies, to the point of demonizing them and fomenting conflict. Fake news is a sign of intolerant and hypersensitive attitudes and leads only to the spread of arrogance and hatred. People who lie to themselves and listen to their own lie come to such a pass that they cannot distinguish the truth within them, or around them, and so lose all respect for themselves and for others.
